

The new $20 thousand peso banknote

Last modified Friday the 14th of October, 2016

Twenty thousand banknote:

On 30 June 2016, Banco de la República launched the new 20 thousand peso banknote, the second of the new family of banknotes, which will circulate simultaneously with the current one. The obverse features the image of President Alfonso Lopez Michelsen (complying with article 8 of Act 1599 of 2012 issued by Congress) together with the fruit of the anon and the zenú earring. The reverse highlights the channels at La Mojana and the sombrero vueltiao, (complying with article 2 of Act 908 of 2004 issued by Congress). Learn about its characteristics and security elements in this video.
