The Financial Stability Special Reports accompany the publication of the Financial Stability Report, providing a more detailed analysis of certain aspects and risks relevant to the stability of the Colombian financial system.

Publication Date: Wednesday, 1 of July 2020 This special report analyzes the combined dynamics of the real estate market in Colombia and of the housing credit market to identify potential sources of risk that could affect the economy and financial stability. In particular, the report studies the performance of variables associated with the prices of housing, their financing, and the market supply and sales levels.
