

Banco de la República increases its international reserves by USD 1.5 billion

Banco de la República increases its international reserves by USD 1.5 billion

On December the 2nd Banco de la República (Central Bank of Colombia) purchased USD1.5 billion from the Government at the current certified exchange rate (TRM). By doing so, the Bank is strengthening its international reserves position accordingly with its long-term external risk hedging policy.