

February 2023 Board of Directors' meeting - Regular

OLD Activities of the Board of Directors

Banco de la República's Board of Directors (BDBR) has a regular schedule of meetings. In 8 of its 12 sessions, the Board makes decisions on the level of the monetary policy rate. The other 4 are ordinary meetings, where other decisions are made.

See additional information in "Banco de la República transforms its Communication Scheme for Monetary Policy Decisions"

Outline of publications and events for the regular meeting

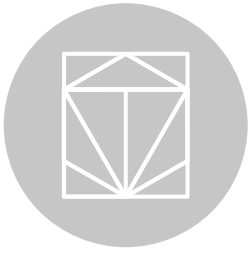

One week prior to the Board of Directors' meeting

Blackout period does not apply to this meeting.

Day of the Board meeting

Press release of other decisions made by the Board of Directors during this regular meeting

First business day following the Board of Directors' meeting

No Monetary Policy Report has been published

Second business day following the Board of Directors' meeting

No minutes are published for this type of meeting

Wednesday following the Board of Directors' meeting

No presentation or press conference of the Monetary Policy Report is held

- Print