Foreign investors made significant sales of their holdings of local public debt securities during 2023. Specifically, they sold COP 9.1 t in peso-denominated TES and COP 2.4 t in UVR-denominated TES respectively. This represented a 11.7% decrease in their balance in pesos compared to what was seen at the end of December 2022.

Nevertheless, foreign investors remain the second largest holders of local public debt securities<sup>2</sup> (Graph B2.1). They have been the second largest holders of these securities after pension and severance funds since 2016. They have maintained this position even in stressful events such as the covid-19 pandemic.
