Warning! Fake News about Banco de la República is circulating on Social Media

Warning! Fake News about Banco de la República is circulating on Social Media

The post is fraudulently using the image of the Governor, manipulated with artificial intelligence, to simulate an interview on the Noticias RCN set, thereby disseminating false information.

Banco de la República categorically denies this content, which does not reflect reality or the institution's official communications.

The public should be cautious of the risks of such false posts, which are intended to misinform and, in some cases, lead to errors or fraud.

Please note:

- Always verify the source of the information.
- Do not enter personal data on untrusted links.
- Consult only the institution's official channels to obtain verified information:
    - Facebook
    - X
    - LinkedIn
    - Instagram
    - Threads
    - TikTok
    - YouTube
